Procedure for membership admission

Applicants for membership must make a written application to the Secretary on such form as the Board may prescribe and must pay the Society's annual or lifetime subscription upon admission. All new memberships must be confirmed by the Board and may be declined by the Board without any reason having to be given.

Type of membership

Annual Subscription* $30 including GST

Lifetime Subscription $360 including GST

* Annual membership fee will cover the year from date of payment until the following 30th June.

Membership Fees are not to be paid until your membership application has been finalised as per the membership application process. If admitted as a member, you will receive an invoice and payment will then be due.

Laura Fergusson Trust Incorporated is governed by our Constitution and Rules. Under Clause 4.2 of the constitution all new memberships must be confirmed by the Board. You will be notified of the outcome of this process when it is completed.

To view the Constitution and Rules relating to membership, visit our website, or a copy can be mailed to you upon request.

Reasons for supporting the Trust

- I am a past client of Laura Fergusson Rehabilitation (LFR).
- I have a friend or family member who had used LFR's facilities and/or services.
- I want to make a difference.
- I have another reason (please feel free to share this reason in the other area below).
